

HONORS DONN FENDLER

Maine Guides Group Makes Him a Member for His Exploit

AUGUSTA, Me., Aug. 2 (AP).— Donn Fendler, who was lost for eight days but found his way out of the Mount Katahdin wilderness, came to an anti-climax today. He was made a member of the Maine Guides Association.

"Pretty tired," but thrilled and happy, the 12-year-old Rye, N. Y., Boy Scout returned to his family's Newport Summer home after a reception by Governor Barrows and a public demonstration.
